

Mastering your Master's Degree

A How To Manual for the M.A. American Studies Program of the Goethe University, Frankfurt

Dear reader,

welcome to the M.A. American Studies Program of the Goethe University, Frankfurt. This manual is intended to provide an oversight of resources for your studies, and to help you navigate formalities such as selecting and registering for courses, receiving transcripts of your grades, and much more. We hope you find this information helpful in navigating the master's degree program on a daily basis.

We wish you all the best on your academic journey.

1. First Steps – Registering for the Degree Program

There is one final piece of paperwork you must take care of at the beginning of the master's program, in order to formally register with the degree certification department “Prüfungsamt Geistes- Kultur- und Sportwissenschaften” (PGKS). You must fill out and sign the application for the master’s exam admission, and send it to the PGKS. This is necessary in order to receive grades and Credit Points within the degree program.

You can download the application by visiting the PGKS website: www.pgks.de Choose the download section and navigate to “American Studies, Master (ab WS 2025/26)”. Select “Zulassung Masterprüfung” highlighted in blue on the left, below the title. This will prompt the download of the application form as a PDF.

Later, when you have completed all of your seminars and discussed your topic with your professor, you can download the application form for your master's thesis examination by clicking on the section "Anmeldung Master Arbeit" highlighted in blue on the bottom right below "American Studies, Master (ab WS 2025/26)". This form must then also be submitted to the PGKS for confirmation.

The PGKS has one member of staff that is responsible for the American Studies degree programs. Currently, this is Ms. Alessandra Bürkle (Sept. 2025). She can be reached by phone (069-798-23637), per e-mail at PGKS-FG09@uni-frankfurt.de, or simply through the PGKS's contact page.

Remember: There is a deadline for the submission of the application several weeks after the beginning of the winter term. Make sure to complete your application in a timely manner, and check the PGKS website for further information.

You can also download transcript forms ("Modulscheine") from the PGKS's website. You will need them when you submit a term paper, and for your "Akademisches Optionalmodul"/"Academic Training Module". These transcripts serve as a record of the seminars and modules you have completed. Your grades will be available online (see p. 8), however you can submit your Modulschein in case your grade should not appear. The only Modulschein you will have to submit is the one for the "Akademisches Optionalmodul", as this information is not automatically sent to the PGKS. In case you have any questions regarding your Akademisches Optionalmodul, feel free to contact Dr. Magda Majewska (majewska@em.uni-frankfurt.de), who is currently the head of the master's degree program.

You can download the Modulscheine here: <https://www.pgks.de/download/>

Select “Modulscheine für alle Fächer” and scroll to “American Studies, Master (ab WS 2025/26)”.

Finally, you can find a complete manual on how to use the LSF system (see Nr. 2) on the PGKS website. Go to the “Download” section and click on “Infos zu Bachelor-, Master-, etc.”. Then select “QIS Tutorial English” highlighted in blue at the bottom of the drop down page.

2. LSF – Course Selection & Registration, Grades, and other Certificates

The LSF is the online service of the Goethe University you will be using the most. You can register for courses and exams, review your grades, and download other important records here. In order to log in, you will need the registration info you will have received for online services from the “Hochschulrechenzentrum” (HRZ). Your username is always the ID at the beginning of your student e-mail (e.g. s1234567@stud.uni-frankfurt.de). If you cannot find your registration info, contact the HRZ immediately: https://www.rz.uni-frankfurt.de/76030462/Services_A_Z (for information on who to contact for which service, you can also check out this pdf here: https://www.rz.uni-frankfurt.de/86811783/HRZ_Service_Center_Aktuelle_Erreichbarkeit.pdf)

To access the LSF, visit: <https://qis.server.uni-frankfurt.de/qisserver/rds?state=user&type=0&topitem=>

You can change the language to English in the top right corner of the page.

Please Note: The university is transitioning between systems over an extended period of time. Much of your personal information, transcripts, and payment information regarding tuition fees can be found on this website: <https://www.goethe-campus.uni-frankfurt.de/qisserver/pages/cs/sys/portal/hisinoneStartPage.faces?chco=y>
To log on, simply enter your student account name and password on the top right. It is the same name and password you use to access the LSF.

3. OLAT – Course Information and Resources

OLAT is an online system used to share course materials, assignments, etc. within seminars. You can download texts uploaded by your instructors, as well as upload assignments or presentations you may be required to complete in the course of your seminar.

In order to access the OLAT services, visit the following website and enter your student account information: <https://olat.server.uni-frankfurt.de/>

You can change the language at the top right corner of the page.

The screenshot shows the OLAT login interface. At the top right, there is a language selection dropdown menu currently set to 'Deutsch', indicated by a red arrow. The main content area is blue and contains the Goethe University logo and the text 'Willkommen in OLAT'. Below this, there are two login options: 'HRZ-Login' with input fields for 'HRZ-Login' and 'HRZ-Passwort', and a 'Login' button; and 'ZUERST AUSPROBIEREN?' with a 'Gastzugang' button. A red arrow points to the language dropdown menu in the top right corner. At the bottom, there is a white box with information for teachers, including a link to the homepage and a note about video uploads. A footer section mentions 'OLAT-Wartungsfenster'.

Once you have logged into OLAT, you will land on an overview page, where you can see the courses you have already registered for.

There is an instruction manual for OLAT, along with a support page where it can be downloaded and where you will find answers to many other questions you may have. Sadly, this material is currently still only available in German. This may change in the future. You can find the help page here:

<https://www.goethe-university-frankfurt.de/61547388/OLAT.pdf>

4. Moodle – Course Information and Resources

Moodle is very similar to OLAT, it is also an online system used to share course materials, assignments, etc. within seminars. You can download texts uploaded by your instructors, as well as upload assignments or presentations you may be required to complete in the course of your seminar. It is up to your instructors which system they choose to use, if they use OLAT or Moodle in the course at all.

Moodle can be accessed using your student account information: <https://moodle.studiumdigitale.uni-frankfurt.de/moodle/>

You can select the language you wish to use and access the log in function in the top right corner of the page.

The screenshot shows a Moodle course page for "Translation II (Clark)" at Goethe University Frankfurt. The page is titled "Einschreibeoptionen" and lists the course name and trainer (Robert Clark). Under the "Selbsteinschreibung (Teilnehmer/in)" section, it states "Kein Einschreibeschlüssel notwendig". A blue button labeled "Einschreiben" is highlighted with a red circle and a red arrow pointing to it. The left navigation menu includes "Startseite", "Dashboard", "Website", "Meine Kurse", and "Kurse". The "Kurse" section is expanded to show "Fachbereich 10" and "WS 20/21", with "Translation II (Clark)" listed among the courses.

You will then be able to access the course from your overview page.

5. The Department Website

For general information regarding the American Studies department at the Goethe University, visit the department's website. On the left side of the page, by clicking on “Announcements,” you will find information on current events such as guest lectures hosted by the department. By clicking on “Faculty,” you will receive an overview of professors and instructors at the department. By selecting their names, you will be able to review their contact information and the research they are currently conducting. Finally, the contact information and opening hours of the department’s secretariat in Room 4.121 can be found at the bottom of the page. You will mainly need to visit the secretariat to hand-in and pick-up your term papers.

6. Map of the Westend Campus

You can download a map of the Westend Campus for better orientation:
<https://www.uni-frankfurt.de/86262292/lage-und-anfahrtsplan-campus-westend-stand-oktober-2022.pdf>

There is also a “security” map available, which illustrates which pathways are illuminated best (see yellow paths) and where you can find assistance if you should feel unsafe on campus when underway after dark. There are porters and security guards at the main entrance of every building:
https://www.uni-frankfurt.de/70548863/Sicher_ueber_den_Campus_der_GU_Faltplan_Campus_Westend.pdf

Finally, most seminars offer a reader containing course materials, which usually can be bought at a nearby copy shop called “Script & Kopie.” The address is Wolfgangstr. 141, just south of the main entrance to the Westend Campus by the IG Farben building.
